

ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY
WOMEN'S, GENDER, AND SEXUALITY STUDIES (WGSS) PROGRAM
MINOR LEARNING OUTCOMES

	Covered	Not Covered
WGSS COURSE NAME AND NUMBER:
1. Demonstrate the ability to think critically about classic feminist written and visual texts and contemporary theories of gender, race, class, caste, sexuality, coloniality, ability and their intersections.
2. Exhibit a proficient understanding of and ability to apply feminist theoretical concepts (e.g. intersectionality), frameworks, language, and visual vocabularies to address issues of gender (and its intersections) locally and globally.
3. Demonstrate a working knowledge of women's participation in areas of social life including law, health, politics, family, culture, labor, economy, art and spirituality.
4. Demonstrate women's contribution to and transformation of areas of social life including, but not limited to, law, health, politics, labor, family, culture, economy, the arts, and/or spirituality.
5. Demonstrate both information literacy and proficient use of research skills used to locate and analyze scholarship on gender and its intersections.
6. Express clearly ideas central to women's, gender and sexuality studies in written, spoken, and visual/artistic forms.
7. Demonstrate the ability to locate community resources and/or participate in community activities supporting women and girls.		